

Hearings on Religious Freedom in India and Pakistan: Closing Remarks

September 18, 2000

Closing Remarks by Chairman Abrams

I thank all those who are here in the room with us and all the members of the Commission who have been here today. This is the beginning, not the end, of our attempt to learn more about the situation of religious freedom in India and Pakistan.

The hearing is adjourned. Thank you.