

January 31, 2007: The Many Faces of China's Repression: Human Rights, Religious Freedom, and U.S. Diplomacy in China

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 31, 2007

Contact:

Judith Ingram, Communications Director,

(202) 523-3240, ext. 127

cell (202) 375-3787

-EVENT ADVISORY-The Many Faces of China's Repression: Human Rights, Religious Freedom, and U.S. Diplomacy in China
When: Wednesday, January 31, 2007, 1:30 - 4:00 pm
Where: Dirksen Senate Office Building, Room

538
Agenda: Panel I: Current policy statement from the administration

State Department official invited
Panel II: China's major religious communities: The faces of repression
Bhuchung Tsering -

Vice President, International Campaign for Tibet
Bob Fu - President, China Aid Association
Kamila Telenbidaeva - wife of

Huseyin Celil, Uyghur Canadian Association
Erping Zhang - President, Association for Asia Research
Joseph Kung -

President, Cardinal Kung Foundation
Panel III: Human Rights and U.S. Diplomacy in China
Michael Green - Japan Chair,

Center for Strategic and International Studies (former Senior Director for Asian Affairs at the National Security Council)

Sharon Hom - Executive Director, Human Rights in China
RSVP: Angela Stephens, astephens@uscirf.gov, (202)

523-3240, x114

Felice D. Gaer, Chair &bull; Michael Cromartie, Vice Chair &bull; Elizabeth H. Prodromou, Vice Chair &bull; Nina Shea, Vice

Chair &bull; Preeta D. Bansal &bull; Archbishop Charles J. Chaput &bull; Khaled Abou El Fadl &bull; Richard D.

Land &bull; Bishop Ricardo Ramirez &bull; Ambassador John V. Hanford III, Ex-Officio &bull; Joseph R. Crapa, Executive

Director