

<http://www.cbn.com/cbnnews/world/2011/April/US-Agency-Calls-China-to-Allow-Easter-Worship/>

The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom has called on China to end harassment and detentions of Christians this Holy Week and Easter Sunday.

Scott Flipse is the deputy director of the commission, which is an autonomous government board. He says unregistered churches like Beijing's Shouwang Church should be free to worship during Holy Week.