

<http://news.ph.msn.com/regional/article.aspx?cp-documentid=4792444>

The US government has repeatedly criticised China's overall rights crackdown, while the US Commission on International Religious Freedom, an autonomous government board, this week condemned the actions against Shouwang.

“Beijing has again responded with ruthless intolerance to peaceful religious activity,” Leonard Leo, chair of the commission, said in a statement that also urged China to stop detaining members and allow Easter services.