

By Shaun Tandon

<http://www.zawya.com/story.cfm/sidANA20110428T075459ZJ>

EU18

WASHINGTON, Apr 28, 2011 (AFP) - A US commission called Thursday for Egypt to be put on a blacklist for lack of religious freedom, saying attacks on Coptic Christians and other minorities have worsened despite political changes.

In an annual report, the US

Commission on International Religious Freedom voiced concern about what it saw as serious violations in a number of nations including China, Iran, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and Vietnam.