

<http://www.cathnewsindia.com/2011/05/02/india-on-us-watch-list/>

The Church

has welcomed a decision by the

United States Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF)

to put India on its watch list.

“This means there are serious religious freedom issues that require close monitoring due to the nature and extent of violations,” John Dayal, secretary of the All India Christian Council, said on May 2.